THE UNITED CITIZENS OF AMERICA

Official Mission Statement

Sections 1–3

1. Preamble: The Foundation of a Living Legacy

The United Citizens Movement assumes the sacred mantle of stewardship over the structural integrity of our Republic. We recognize that the U.S. Constitution is not a static relic of antiquity, but a vital working document that demands active, generational vigilance to survive. Our purpose is to facilitate a coherent succession of democratic ideals, ensuring that the fire of the American experiment is passed undiminished from one era to the next. We stand as the definitive guardians of this historical continuity, anchoring the nation's future in the timeless strength of its founding.

2. Core Philosophy: The Power of the Informed Citizenry

The movement's philosophy is built upon James Monroe's advocacy for the indispensable role of the people. We hold that a democracy is only as resilient as the minds of its participants. An educated and vigilant public serves as the terminal bulwark of our Republic. We believe that an informed citizenry is the primary defense for the blessings of liberty. Only when the people remain the tireless sentinels of their own rights can the constitutional architecture of freedom endure against the encroachment of arbitrary power.

3. Our Mandate: The Protection of Civil Liberties

The United Citizens Movement recognizes a non-negotiable obligation to uphold the Bill of Rights. We view the preservation of individual immunity from state overreach as a fundamental duty of every American. Our mandate is centered on these legal pillars:

- Due Process: A resolute commitment to ensuring fair and transparent treatment through the judicial system, defending the procedural integrity upon which all justice rests.
- Equal Protection: The absolute mandate for justice regardless of status, demanding that the law recognizes no hierarchies and extends its shield to every citizen.
- Rights of the Accused: The essential preservation of the individual within the legal framework, ensuring that the power of the state is always checked by the rights of the person.

> Joshua Caleb Scott: "To have the proper leadership we must learn to give the role to those who have a vision firsthand of what they will create, having the determination, and the open conversations with all who are involved, so that the trust is restored once again in humanity."

> John Fitzgerald Kennedy said: "ask not what your country can do for you but what you can do for your country"

> Theodore Roosevelt: "Unless a man is master of his soul, all other kinds of mastery amount to little"

> Thomas Jefferson: "Honesty is the first chapter in the book of wisdom."

> George Washington: "The harder the conflict the greater the triumph."

> Andrew Jackson: "No free Government can stand without virtue in the people and a lofty spirit of patriotism."

> Dwight D Eisenhower: "We the people elect leaders not to rule but to serve"

> Abraham Lincoln: "I see in the near future a crisis approaching and it unnerves me, and it causes me to tremble, for the safety of my country. Corporations have been enthroned, and an era of corruption in high places we will follow, and the money power of the country will endeavor to prolong its reign, by working upon the prejudice of the people, until all wealth is aggregated in a few hands, and the republic is destroyed."
